KEN WATERWORTH – Adjudicator for open sections

Ken is the Director of Music at Eltham High School having been involved in the music program at the school since 1981. He has played an extremely important role in the development and growth of this instrumental program which now boasts over 350 students. Ken has established and developed the school's Symphonic Band into one of Australia's finest school ensembles. As a result the band was invited to perform at the International Mid West Band Clinic in Chicago in 1997. It remains the only Australian school band to have performed at this prestigious event.

He is acknowledged as one of Australia's leading music educators, with particular recognition for his work with band programs. Ken is highly praised for his skills in training and developing school concert bands as well as being one of the finest conductors of concert and brass bands in this country. He is a member of both the Australian Band and Orchestra Association and the National Band Association of America and is always in great demand as a guest conductor, adjudicator, speaker and soloist.

Ken, for many years was a tutor and conductor for Melbourne Youth Music, culminating in his appointment as Chief Conductor of the Melbourne Youth Symphonic Band. He toured Japan with the band in September 1994 and further enhanced the band's enviable reputation by winning the National Concert Band Championship in 1999.

In 1995 Ken was presented with an Australia Day Award for his service to the community and arts. The award was presented in recognition of Ken's devotion and commitment to Music Education as the Director of Music at Eltham High School. His work has been further acknowledged by his selection as a finalist in the 1997 Victorian "Teacher of the Year" Awards. The Prime Ministers Centenary Medal was awarded to Ken in 2003 for leadership in the development of music curriculum.

Ken was appointed conductor of the Salvation Army's premier music ensemble, the Melbourne Staff Band in June 1994. He was previously the deputy conductor for three years and a playing member of the band for fourteen years. As an accomplished euphonium soloist Ken was featured on the band's many international tours and major concerts. Since Ken's appointment as Musical Director, the band has toured the USA and Great Britain, as well as performing widely throughout Australia. Under his direction the Melbourne Staff Band has produced some six compact disc recordings.

Edward (Ted) Hicks – Adjudicator for Junior sections

Ted Hicks began playing with Latrobe Federal Band in 1951 on tenor horn, successfully taking part in competitions as a soloist over many years. He won Junior Championships on horn, soprano cornet and cornet, and the prestigious Alf Buck Memorial Trophy on two occasions.

The feature of Ted's playing career at Latrobe was a trip to England in 1979, taking part in the Edinburgh Festival and doing a concert tour. Whilst undertaking tertiary study in music and teaching at Devonport High School, he continued to play in dance bands and choral society orchestras.

Ted served a period with the Preston Municipal Band under Charles Smith during which time they won the 1968 Victorian A Grade Championships. In 1989, Ted took over as conductor of the City of Devonport Brass Band which won the State C Grade title in 1990. On moving to Launceston he became conductor of City of Launceston Brass taking them to the State B Grade Championships and the band section of the Devonport Eisteddfod in 1993. He is currently at the helm of State D Grade Champion, Launceston Railway Silver Band.

He has been a registered adjudicator for eight years and has judged several Devonport Eisteddfods and the State Band Championships. In 2001 Ted was Chief Music Adjudicator at the Tasmanian State Championships held in Ulverstone.
